A word from our Minister...

Tatou te na ona maofa i le matagofie ma le suamalie o le alofa ma le agalelei, lē fa’atuaioa o lo tatou Atua Paia, i lea aso ma lea aso o lo outou soifua ma lo matou nei ola. Lagi ia Lona Vi’iiga e le aunoa i aso uma, i le maleifua ma le mālōlō ane i taeao ma afiafi o Lana Fanau. Fa’afetai i Le Atua mo Lana Ta’ita’iga malu i la tatou folauga, i lenā masina o Setema ua mou malie atu. Mālō le tauata’i, mālō le fa’amalosi ma le finau, i galuega mae’a, ae maise lava le fa’amoemoe o le Ekalesia, pei ona tatou fa’aataunu’uina i le Masina o Setema, auā se tamaoaiga e fa’amuta ai le totoigiina o Solar Panels. Ia fa’afo’i i Le Atua le Vi’iiga, le Fa’ane’ene’ega ma le Mana e tatau. Ia fa’amanuia Le Ali’i i aiga o le tatou nu’u lotu, ia outou maua pea le sosia o fa’amanuiaga mai le Alofa Tunoa o Le Atua, le Filemu o Iesu Keriso, ma le Ta’ita’iga Malu o le Agaga Paia, i lo outou ulufafo ma lo outou ulufale.

Fa’afetai mo Talosaga, ma lo outou agalelei!

For our Samoan Congregations, the Month of October is very much focused on the Children of the Church. The Second Sunday of the Month – this year: 10 October 2021 – is the aptly named: Lotu Tamaiti / Aso Sa Pa’epa’e or Children’s Sunday / White Sunday. Our Children and Youth attired in their resplendent white outfits with matching accessories, full of excitement and a tinge of Nervousness perhaps, as they get ready to Worship their hearts out, sharing Songs and Actions Songs, Sunday School Class Presentations, and Individual Family Recitations and Songs. Sunday School Class Presentations, and Individual Family Recitations and Songs. It’s a time of Joy and Wonder, as our Children bring forth the Good News on this most special day for them. We appreciate and love our Children in the Church and Praise God for them!

October also continues the Change of Seasons from Summer to Fall.

The Temperatures begin to get cooler. Days get shorter. The air is crisper in the morning. It begins to rain more. (Lightning and Thunder too apparently)The Leaves on the Trees change colour and Falling Leaves are everywhere.

Fallen leaves are an essential part of a forest’s ecosystem. The “leaf litter” shields the soil from hard rains, holding in moisture and preventing erosion. It also protects tree seeds that will germinate next spring, and nutrients that leach from the dead leaves nourish the seedlings. That’s our Science Lesson for today.

This is our Faith Lesson for today. Just as God’s Creative Power changes the Seasons, and the Autumn Leaves fall to allow new growth and new life, so it is with our Lives. God’s Spirit looks to bring New Growth and New Life to us, but that can only happen if we let those “Falling Leaves” fall. There are things that we need to let of go of – “Leaves that Need to Fall”- things that prevent us from experiencing New and Fresh Blessings from God. If we don’t let go and Let God, those Leaves that need to fall in our lives will never fall, and we will never change. There will never be a Season of Jesus Christ Change in our Heart, Mind, Spirit and Soul, and all that will remain are dead, withered leaves that will never grow. What are the “Leaves that need to Fall” from our Lives? Lord, let Your Will be done in my life!! May the Lord who controls All Seasons and all Times, Bless you and your Family Abundantly, this Fall Season! We Love You All With The Love of The Lord! Soifua ma ia Manuia!

-Rev. Fa’afuina & Mrs. Tuitogama’atoe Solomona.

Member Spotlight

Elder Deacon Liva Solomuli

This issue's Member Spotlight is on our very own Elder Deacon Liva Solomuli. Liva was born on September 29, 1946 in the village of Ta'u, Manu'a. Liva grew up and attended school in Ta'u until he completed middle school then he moved to Tutuila to attend the High School of American Samoa. Life would then take Liva to San Francisco where he settled in with family. In 1968, at the age of 22, Liva enlisted in the U.S. Navy.

Early in Liva's Navy career, he was stationed in San Diego and at the time became a member and a deacon of our Church, FSCCCSD, during Rev. Suitonu's ministry. Liva received orders to be stationed at Long Beach Naval Base and left a bookmark in San Diego, as we all know where Liva would end up. Liva fell in love with the woman of his dreams and married Elsie Maloata in 1977. Like most of our parent's generation, Elsie held down the fort at home with their beautiful children while Liva was deployed overseas. Liva served on 8 different US Navy ships which took him on a naval career around the world. His most memorable tour was in Israel during the war as well as a tour in Beirut. One of Liva's finest moments in the Navy was when he advanced from being an enlisted active duty member of the U.S. Navy to becoming a Warrant Officer. As Liva fondly recollects his career, he remembers the best part of being a Warrant Officer was standing watch on the bridge as OOD (Officer Of the Deck) Underway. Liva retired from the U.S. Navy in 1996 after 28 years of service, we thank you for your service sir. Liva's retirement would bring him back to San Diego where he resides with his family and serves as the Elder Deacon of our Church. The highlight of Liva's life is spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren. You can hear the love in his voice as he speaks of his grandchildren. Asked if he has any hobbies and Liva laughs and says the casino 😊. That may be so but being involved with the Church is Liva's passion. He likes to see the young kids step up and do the work of the Church. Liva's golden advice to his Church family is to be strong in the Lord for the Church and do what you're supposed to do to keep the Church strong for generations to come...and that actions speak louder than words.

THE PROMPTING OF MY HEART

I am a saved sinner and I live in a protected bubble. In the comfort of my bubble I learn that I’m equipped with an arsenal of tools from God to do His work. But I can’t help but feel it may be much more effective when used outside the safety of my bubble. I was getting restless. I yearned to do something but not quite sure what. Then it hit me, all the signs were there ...the prompting in my heart, the deep dive in Bible studies, the messages received on Sundays, the devotions...I wanted to give back to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ because He saved me. I yearned to tell people about my Savior.

I praise God for the opportunity to be exposed to His Word, Will, and instructions. There are so many encouraging lessons and to name a few: Be great for the Lord, today; Be open to the Will of God; We are created for Good works; The outcome belongs to God but we are responsible for the service; Sow the Gospel of Jesus Christ in others; What you seek you will find.

I often think about the LMS missionaries who brought the Good News to our islands and wonder how life would be for our people today had they not. I think about our ancestors who took on the calling to spread the Good News. How brave they all were! I am so inspired by them! The prompting in my heart is to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

And so I prayed, brainstormed, planned and prepared. I ordered 50 Daily Bread little devotional books to hand out as a resource and waited for the books to arrive. As I waited, I prayed that the fire and longing in my heart wouldn’t fade. I have a bad habit of starting something and not finishing it. If it weren’t for the studies, messages and devotions that fed my soul, I might’ve abandoned the “plan”.

The books arrived and it was a crazy battle within to not stay in my safe bubble and watch Netflix. The week before, I learned in study that “grieving the Holy Spirit”, which means to neglect the prompting of the Holy Spirit, is unforgivable. That was all I needed to stop procrastinating and start working.

After church on the appointed day, I got my lunch, put it in the fridge for after work, armed myself with my booklets and a prayer and headed to 45 park next door. I was a bit unsure on how to approach the people or what to say, but God in His all-knowing way gave me exactly what I needed. I walked the park and was able to talk to 9 different groups and individuals. I asked them if they knew Jesus. Most of them did and I reminded them that Hope can only be found in Jesus Christ. Some of the folks couldn’t speak English so I had their kids translate for us. I learned the Spanish word for Hope is Esperanza, how beautiful is that? The more I talked with people, the more courageous I became. One guy was gracious enough to listen to me for over 2 minutes as I fought back tears talking about my Savior. Some were receptive, some looked at me with kind eyes and some looked at me like I was crazy. As I walked back to the church I felt humbled, grateful and rejuvenated. My prayer is that this is only the beginning. My brothers and sisters in Christ, let’s be a part of the Great Commission.

Sincerely,
 A Saved Sinner
